

Medical Brigadier General José María Delgado Pérez, Head of the Joint Health Directorate of EMACON

MGB Delgado Pérez was born in Madrid in 1957. Graduated in Medicine and Surgery from the Complutense University of Madrid in 1982, he joined the Air Force Health Corps through service-exams. During his training at the General Air Academy, he was commissioned to the United States Air Force School of Aerospace Medicine (USAFSAM) in San Antonio (Texas), to obtain the complementary specialty of Aerospace Medicine. He was promoted to First Medical Lieutenant in December 1983 and assigned to the Aerospace Medicine Training Center, Aerospace Medicine Unit.

In 1990 he completed his training obtaining the Complementary Specialty of Radiation Oncology at the Air Force Hospital. In February 1995, he was assigned to the service of Radio Oncology at the Central Military Hospital "Gómez Ulla", where he took charge of the Head of said Service until 2008.

From 2008 to 2017 he held various management positions within the Central Defense Hospital, such as Deputy Director of Central Services, Central Services Coordinator and Technical Secretary.

In May 2016, already as full Colonel, he was appointed Director of the Air Force Aerospace Medicine Center.

In July 2019 he was promoted to Brigadier General, taking over the Air Force Medical Directorate until June 2020, which is appointed Chief of the Operational Medical Directorate, now Joint Medical Directorate.

General Brigadier Delgado Pérez has extensive experience in international missions, such as Operation I/F (IRAQ) and three tours in ISAF Operation (Afghanistan).

Civilian and Military Courses

Flight Surgeon Advanced Course of Aerospace Medicine for International Medical Officers.

E.C. Radiation Oncology

Master in Management of Health Services and Healthcare Companies

Most Relevant Medals

Grand Cross of the Royal and Military Order of Saint Hermenegildo.

Grand Cross of Aeronautical Merit.

Military Merit and Naval Merit Cross with white badge.

Distinction of Former Combatant of the Spanish Forces and decorated for conspicuous gallantry in action.

Biographical Data

MBG Delgado Pérez is married, has four children and three grandchildren.

